

PARADE ROUTE CHANGES

The parade will now come down the EAST side of O'Connell Street (the WEST side) and on to Westmoreland Street.

People coming to view on O'Connell Street East are encouraged to access the city through the various access routes on Marlborough Street.

Pedestrians will be re-directed from the Rosie Hackett Bridge, going North to South of the city, as opposed to Westmoreland Street on parade day.

There will be directional street signs in place and An Garda Síochána stewards will be there to assist.

The parade route has also been extended and there is now view along Kevin Street.

Please use public transport, where possible, see: transportforireland.gov.ie.
