Moraine Lake is located in Banff National Park, Canada. Village of Lake Louise, Alberta is situated 14 kilometres (8.7 mi) from it. The lake is found in the Valley of the Ten Peaks, at an elevation of approximately 1,885 m (6,183 feet). The lake is glacially-fed and its surface spreads for 0.5 km² (0.19 mi²).

Moraine Lake is famous for its blue color and the amazing surroundings: high mountains with snowy peaks create the desired tranquility. Many hiking tracks are trod by visitors from all around the world. The tourism agencies also organize hiking groups and provide equipment.

Interesting fact: the landscape of Morain Lake is found on the Canadian 20 dollar bill.
